A MEMBERSHIP IN THE "Y."

HE Y. M. C. A. launches its membership campaign today, backed by a strong and confident organization. The public must meet these work rs half way. Fairmont has a splendid Y. M. C. A. building, the city has the ground work for one of the most successful Y. M. C. A.'s in West Virginin, and there is no reason why the Fairmont should not be the most active and the most helpful of all similar organizations in the state. Y" work has had many discouragements but there is nothing fundamentally wrong with the Y. M. C. A. The chief reason that Fair has not the sustained momentum along Y C. A. lines it should have, is because the work es not receive the personal, interested, attention of men of the community who ought to see, and to sympathize so deeply with the aims of the Y. M. , that they will be willing to put into it the mergy and the support necessary to make it one of the strongest community organizations in the

there would be a mighty complaint go up if the M. C. A. were to threaten to close. Hundreds of young boys in the city would raise a kick that rend the skies, and numbers of industrial organizations would join in, to say nothing of the usiness men's classes in_physical exercise and wimming. There is of course no question of closng the "Y" but it must be understood that no V. A. can be any stronger than the popular suport back of it, that no Y. M. C. A. can do greater than its supporting public wills it to do. The ork of the "Y" in Fairmont rests with the pas

Every man in the city should be interested in the campaign begun today, should be ready to subscribe his membership and to take out a member-ship for some boy, either his own lad, or another oung fellow who may not be able to join unless this nelpful and kind assistance is given. Be ready for those who are making the canvass,and be ready with a smile and a membership fee.

VIEWING WITH ALARM.

S ENATOR DAVIS ELKINS put the whole Democratic campaign amunition in one wad last week when he said that the Democrats had nardown to one attitude, that of "viewing with alarm." Being unable to point with pride at the achievements of an opposing party, they must per-"view with alarm."

The great stone wall that the Democrats are up against is the general public satisfaction with the Harding administration. Labor may have some slaps at government interference, as also may capital, but this element narrows down at the most to but a small proportionate part of the voting public, the great public that remembers that mining of call was demanded by this administration to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the ladvasted life of the voting public to keep the voting public to cual was demanded by this administration to keep the industrial life of the nation from collapse, and men, women, and children from freezing to death this winter—otherwise—miners and operators would yet be facing each other with clepched flats and the mines would have remained sealed. No one expects the elections of this fall to repeat the overwhelming majorities of two yes to that was a vast repudiation of an ailc to coerce the people into a channel delved out by one man. There will be a home coming among Demo crats who were not admirers of Wilson, now that The yield of these four necessities to the game. (That Wilson is definitely out is amply demonstrated by the way candidates who declared for Wilson democracy, dropped that tack like a hot potatoe upon discovering its unpopularity.) There will also be an accrument of dissatisfied voters, who are always dissatisfied one dissatisfied voters, who are always dissatisfied one way or another, and who flock alternately from onside to the other side depending upon which may be in control. But all the campaign guns of the Democrats in their "viewing with alarm" are failing to make any real converts. They have what they have, which is not enough by a great deal, and they are not getting any more. The public is content with the policies of the President, confident in ability to keep a steady helm, and satisfied with what he has done in guilding the destinles of the

MUST SHOW US.

THE removal of Evangeline Booth from her of fice as chief of command in the United States. which is being done in mysterious fashion by General W. Bramwell Booth the head of all Salvation Army activity, has aroused a storm of disapproval and protest from the American organization and the American public in general.

What is termed the "brutal and arbitrary order flow better the said, can be told by the rings on its scales. How about it. Jimmle Coughlin, do of General W. Bramwell Booth, which he issued you shake 'em and count the jinii: London through the newspapers, recalling his gles? sister from American command which she has held for eighteen years" is deeply resented on this continent, and it will be solely through the loyal will to obey of Commander Evangeline Booth, herself, that her removal will be accomplished.

Who is to take the place of Evangeline Booth ir, this country has not been made clear, nor what her duties will now be in England. No information as to this has been vouchsafed as yet by the imperious and short sighted general in chief.

Evangeline Booth understands America, and the people over here understand and love her. During the eighteen years that she has held her post at the head of the Salvation Army, U. S. A. she has built up a most remarkable organization that is beloved by the public, devotedly supported by public donations, and that is now in position to attract the best and most brilliant men and women of this country into active service in its ranks The personnel of workers and leaders in the Salvation Army is now of the highest and best. They are secure in their confidence in Commander Booth her judgment and her understanding of the peculiar social problems of this country, widely different from that of England, dealing with a people entirely different in their outlook and aims from those of London streets and byways.

A vigorous fight is going to be made to retain Commander Booth, for unless the reason of her re moval is amply justified and the one appointed to take her place here highly acceptable, there is going to be such a storm of dissatisfaction and rasentment that it will be a heavy blow to the entire organization in American.

Nick Dominick is being paged for the delivery of a brand new car of which he is the owner. It is curious how bashful some persons are.

The public is still waiting for the "graceful eagle" to do a little oratorical soaring in behalf of Mr. Neely. Mr. Neely of course, can soar a little himself on his own behalf, but promises are promises, you know.

Chairman Hull of the Democratic national committee says President Harding's letter to Representative Mondell is an indirect appeal to the peo ple to return a Republican Congress. Hull says that Harding is doing in indirect fashion what Wilson did directly and openly. It may be true. It is not the policy of President Harding to demand that the voters of the United States do this, or that, but to present things to them in such a way that they will desire to do it of their awn The people are satisfied with the present administration, anyway, so there is no need to use the Wilson style and attempt to coerce the voters into approving it.

domestic use is the price settled upon by Federal Distributor Spens for the West Virginia fields in the "smokeless coal" regions. The price is satisfactory to the operators since eighty per cent of them were in conference with Spens over the rate agreed upon. What price will prevail at the consumer's end is the interesting phase for the pub-lic. This coal is a domestic coal used by thousands of persons for furnaces and fires for house heatit must pass through a certain number of hands before it gets to its final market, but since some of this coal has been selling at $9.45 at the mine, the present fixed price should not serve to boost the price to the consumer but should lower it instead.

WALK-OVER

The Greatest Thing Shoemakers Have Ever Done FOR WOMEN

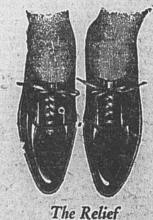

Read how Walk-Over has made it possible for all women, no matter what the shape of their feet, to enjoy perfect foot comfort in stylish shoes that fit every part of the feet minutely - the heel, the tread, the instep, the ankle.

scribes the shape of your feet. You are going to know new foot comfort in either one of the shoes described in this advertisemen

No matter where you go in this country or any of 102 countries throughout the world you'll see women wearing the Princess Pat model. The thing you'll notice about it first is that wonderfully good-looking outside appearance—she exactly perfect fit of it. It looks so shapely that you want to ask the wearer where she bought it. But looks alone do not make it so popular all over the world-it's the comfort women get from wearing it. That's really astonishing. It has a straight inside line—the natural line of the foot. And besides, it has a narrow heel with a wide tread combination, and fits around the ankle as no other shoe ever has.

For women whose feet are shaped like the illustration (2) above. This shoe has been made with a precision never before known in shoemaking. Notice the prominent joints of the great toe and the width across the ball or tread of the foot. The Relief isso constructed that it allows room for the enlargement in the joint of the great toe and conceals that prominence in a most surprising way.

The shoe is really a very pretty model and on the foot looks like a special custom fitting. It is wide at the tread and narrow at the heel, with a snug ankle fit. The comfortable feeling on your foot is a new sensation. See it at this week's special demonstration.
